IN MEMORIAM

JAMES ABNER MARTIN

In sad but loving memory of my dear husband, James Abner Martin, who departed this life four years ago today, July 24, 1947.

An aching heart, a failing tear,
Marks the passing of another year.
When shadows are falling,
And I am alone,
In my heart there is a longing,
If you could only come home.

I pray and know that you are in that
Hea-enly home on high;
And I am praying to meet you there
In that sweet bye and bye.

—His devoted wife,
Mrs. Bertha W. Martin.

In Memoriam:-

GOWIN: In memory of our dear Daddy and Grandaddy, Peter A. Gowin, who passed away four years ago, July 27, 1947.

He is not dead to us who loved him.
He has only gone before.
He lives with us in memory,
And will forever more;
With only one hope in view,
And this we know is true;
You never can return to us,
But we can come to you dear daddy.
He was a wonderful daddy,
He played life square.
No matter when we needed him,
We always found him there.

—Sadly missed by
Daughter, Mrs. Wesley
Stanley and Children.

Young Iowa Trucker Wins Safety Contest

Hauls 7,000 Hogs, 3,000 Cattle a Year

Walter Selinau, 27, of Charlotte, Iowa, was winner of the seventeenth Chicago livestock trucker safety program sponsored by the Chicago Stock Yards in its campaign to reduce the annual national loss of $33,000,000 in meat through safer livestock hauls to market.

Selinau was awarded $1,000 worth of bonds and merchandise for his outstanding hauling record. Judged the best of 3,985 truckers from 19 states and Canada who participated in the program, Selinau's seven trucks traveled 80,060 miles to and from Chicago, carrying 7,000 hogs and 3,000 cattle.

A newcomer in the trucker business, he has been hauling livestock to market for only a year and a half.

Selinau uses care in his livestock hauls. He carries a portable loading chute under his truck for use in farm yards where there is no regular loading chute. He also uses an electric prodder on livestock instead of a whip or club, and places sand and limestone on the floor of his truck to lessen the chances of falling and bruising.

Farm Production May Set All-Time Record in 1951

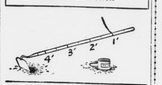
American farmers can expect the demand for their farm products in 1951 to be stronger than in 1950. With normal weather conditions and favorable control of insects and diseases, the production of farm products should be greater than in 1950.

Consequently, with greater production and a stronger demand for farm products, the gross farm income should be higher in 1951, the agriculture department reports.

Farmers, however, will pay higher prices for practically all important items of production in 1951. Some of these items will probably be the highest on record. In this group will be such items as farm machinery and equipment, fuels for machinery, livestock purchases, building and fencing materials and wage rates.

Prices which farmers will pay for such commodities as feed, seed and fertilizer probably will be higher than in 1950

Garden Yardstick



For the gardener who is always in the need of a yardstick or tape and never seems to have one handy, here is an idea that will save much time and trouble. Make your hoe handle a measuring stick by painting bright rings on it at foot and half foot distances from the end.

Electric Cowboy

Glass or porcelain insulators should be used on electric fences. Substitutes are poor economy and they don't look well or last long.

New Pasture Aids Control Of Worms in Poultry Flock

Poultry experts advise the farm wife who raises chickens to provide them with good pasture as a means to control worms. It is the most important reason why a new pasture should be provided each year for the growing flock, they report. Some of the better pasture grasses are a brome-alfalfa mixture or ladino—if the soil and temperature are suited to ladino. Any poultry pasture should be clipped.

The game between the Yankees and Dodgers has been postponed until Monday, August 6th, at 8:00 P. M. The boys will be approaching you to sell tickets for the game and you are asked to donate a generous amount. It is for the benefit of securing playground equipment.

In the intermediate class 10 finished their tests to advance a class. Certificates will be given this Monday to those who passed. Names will be published.

News Around Town

By Mrs. Calvin Robinson

I liked this one: Little Margie, 4 years old, was busy ironing her doll dress one Sunday morning.

Her mother remonstrated: "Don't you know it's a sin to begin any work on the Sabbath?"

Margie looked and calmly replied, "Now don't you suppose that the good Lord knows that the little iron is not hot."

Sgt. Thomas A. Smith returned to Fort Belvoir Tuesday after spending several days here with his mother, Mrs. L. E. Smith.

Friends here are sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. H. Frederick Jones.

I have been neglectful in reporting that I have a telephone in my home: Dial 2816. Another thing, I decided that I would have to purchase one of the new telephone "gossip benches. Did so—one with a switch light on it—but to my dismay, there was trouble turning the light switch on and off. Went back to the store to register a complaint—and come to find out, you have to sit down on the bench before the light will switch on. Really works that way.

Miss Kate O'Brien has returned from a vacation at Miami Beach. She reports that she spent a night in Cuba, making the trip over by boat and back by plane.

Congratulations are in order for Mrs. S. L. Ferguson. She will observe her birthday Tuesday, July 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Curry Harvey and daughter, Jane Ablitt, joined Mr. and Mrs. Houston Crowder and two children, of Lynchburg for a two week vacation at Daytona Beach. They returned home Sunday.

We had a note from Pfc. M. G. Paulette saying that he looks forward each week to receiving his copy of the Times-Virginian. Pfc. Paulette is now stationed at Arlington, Va.

D. A. Conner has just returned from a fishing trip with friends at Wachapreague. Reported very good luck—but then Mr. Conner is a good fisherman!

Mr. and Mrs. Shearer Robertson moved into their recently completed home at Spout Spring Friday.

Pvt. Dan Lewis, of Camp Gordon, Georgia, is spending a ten-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lewis, of Route 3.

This is a belated birthday greeting to the Rev. J. Marshall Walker, of Durham, N. C. His birthday was Saturday, July 21. He is a former pastor of Liberty Baptist Church.
